ORAL ORDER
(Passed on 16th March, 2007)

After arguing the matter for quite some time, learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the relief sought for in this writ petition would not survive for consideration of this Court.

(2) Taking note of the statement made by learned counsel for the petitioner, the writ petition is disposed of as having become infructuous. However, liberty is reserved to the petitioner to approach the appropriate authorities for redressal of all other grievances, if any. Ordered accordingly.
